OXYGEN INKS DEAL WITH COX HOSPITALITY NETWORK

Originals Series & Specials Available In Hotel Rooms Nationwide

Las Vegas – Oxygen has signed a deal with Hospitality Network (HN), a product line brand of Cox Business Services-Las Vegas, to offer the network’s hit shows and popular original programming in hotel rooms serviced by HN. Titles including Campus Ladies, Monique’s F.A.T. Chance, Fight Girls, Tease, and Talk Sex with Sue Johanson will be available to hotel video-on-demand users across the United States. HN provides video as well as wired and wireless data solutions to sixteen of the world’s twenty largest hotels.

“This deal with Hospitality Network rounds out our distribution deals with all the major hotel VOD players,” said Mary Murano, President of Distribution at Oxygen. “Deals like this allow Oxygen to be everywhere our audience is, which is the key to growing our business.”

About Oxygen Media

Oxygen, the only cable network owned and operated by women, is currently available in over 71 million homes. The network was launched in 2000 to fill a void in the television landscape -- creating a network targeted to younger women. Oxygen is rewriting the rulebook for women’s television, with vast array of unconventional and original programming including The Janice Dickinson Modeling Agency, The Bad Girls Club, Tori & Dean: Inn Love and Campus Ladies. Geraldine Laybourne, the network’s founder, Chairman and CEO, has led the company to be a strong advocate for women. Through programs like The Mentor’s Walk, Oxygen’s national program for bringing along the next generation, and “Who Cares About Girls,” Oxygen’s new documentary series -- Oxygen is creating The New Girls Network.
